

RAMSAY

CALIFORNIA PINOT NOIR

Elegance That Doesn't Overthink It

This Pinot is all charm, no fuss. Raspberry and cassis lead the way, grounded by silky tannins, soft vanilla, and just a hint of oak. It's lively, graceful, and undeniably drinkable — a refined wine that makes every sip feel perfectly composed.

Appellations

Sonoma, Monterey, and Russian River Valley

Tasting Notes

Bright and expressive, the 2023 vintage shows a brilliant ruby hue and opens with inviting aromas of red raspberry and blackcurrant. Elegant and medium-bodied, it unfolds with layers of vibrant fruit accented by subtle notes of vanilla and oak. A lively acidity carries the wine to a graceful, lingering finish that's both smooth and refined.
